

INTERNATIONAL FOUNDATION FOR PROTECTION OFFICERS KNOWLEDGE TO PROTECT

Miles Ellington, a Student attending Alcorn State University is awarded a scholarship to attend the Initial Security Officer Program (ISOP) Course and a copy of the 8th edition of The Professional Protection Officer. During a recent interview of 19 Students at Alcorn, IFPO Board Member Ron Martin, CPP, CPOI was so impressed by his security possibilities Ron recommended to the IFPO Executive Director Ms. Sandi Davies, and she approved the award. IFPO The International Foundation for Protection Officers provides professional learning opportunities for security practitioners, to impart the knowledge, skills, and competencies required to maximize job performance and enhance career potential. Additionally, Miles will receive two sponsored student memberships. ASIS International is the largest worldwide organization consisting of over 35,000 members. The Security Industry Association represent over 800 security manufacturers and System Integrators.

