

WE WANT TO HEAR FROM YOU!

The International Foundation for Protection Officers (IFPO) in partnership with Perpetuity Research are conducting a ground-breaking study to explore the roles, responsibilities and training of frontline Security Officers (sometimes referred to as security guards).

What is the study?

- It is an online survey designed to seek out the following information as it pertains to the current role and background of a Security Officer:
 - Tasks and skills required to complete your duties
 - Training requirements for your specific position
- The study period will be from April 9, 2021 – May 31, 2021
- The survey takes up to 15 minutes to complete and is mainly multiple choice questions.

Who is eligible to take the survey?

- Any frontline Security Officer/Guard (up to supervisor level) who is currently working in one of the following countries*:
 - Canada
 - Ecuador
 - India
 - Ireland
 - Nigeria
 - Saudi Arabia
 - South Korea
 - UK
 - USA

 Please note that these initial 9 countries have been identified for this initial phase and others may be added as the project progresses.*

What will the information be used for?

- All of the information gathered will be used by the IFPO and Perpetuity Research in further development and expansion of educational programs and certification standards within the industry.
- Your survey answers will be anonymous. At the end of the survey, you may choose to enter a valid email address for entry in to a prize draw to win a $50USD value Amazon Gift Card.

How to participate

- Click here <https://www.surveymonkey.co.uk/r/ModernSecurityOfficerRole>

INTERNATIONAL FOUNDATION FOR PROTECTION OFFICERS
KNOWLEDGE TO PROTECT